Molly Dickler is an artist and photographer whose interests span visual art, performance and fashion. Dickler attended California College of the Arts, where she studied fashion, then switched to photography, which she continued studying at Otis College of Art and Design in Los Angeles. She will graduate in May 2021 with a BFA in photography and a minor in teaching. Overdose (2020) is one of a series called The Loss of a Loved One about real or imagined traumas, in which Dickler is both the model and the photographer.
